TAILORED PRODUCT SOLUTIONS FOR TRIBES

Tribal country has experienced unprecedented economic growth, leading to a whole new world of opportunity and risk. Today's challenges involve much more than maintaining your Tribe's wealth. It means navigating the economic downturn while managing a wave of new gaming regulations and rising expenses.

We understand that within most tribes, the tribal council sets the course of the tribe and its enterprises while maintaining ultimate authority over business decisions. We also know that building insurance programs for tribal enterprises is very complex. At Profound Specialty Programs, we have built a specialized team of insurance professionals with vast experience assisting Native American clients, trained in a vast array of insurance programs in addition to their deep understanding of the operations of tribal enterprises.
